Terracotta Warriors

Xi'an, Shaanxi, China

soldiers, horses and chariots, fully equipped with weapons, to defend his throne in heaven. The structures were created with remarkably elaborate

Over 2,200 years ago, Qin Shi Huang, the first emperor of the Qing dynasty, ordered the construction of the largest tomb known to modern man. His legacy still seen today, he was the emperor responsible for the construction of the Great Wall and the unification of China. When he first came to power, in the years preceding 2000 BC, he began the development of his tomb. Over 720,000 people worked on the tomb's construction, which took nearly four decades.

The Terracotta Army is one portion of the tomb, and the main attraction of the area. Emperor Qin Shi Huang believed that, to defend his throne in the afterlife, he would need a personal army. Consequently, he ordered the creation of thousands of detail, and no two are the same.

There are three pits for the army. Pit one — the largest — houses the main army. The second pit is home to hundreds of chariots. And the final pit houses the leaders and generals: the area where war strategy is created.

The pits were uncovered by peasant farmers some 30 years ago, revealing some of the most wondrous findings of the ancient world. Altogether over 7,000 horses, soldiers and chariots have been uncovered in the tombs; however, estimates claim that several thousand more still wait to be revealed. Today, some consider the Terracotta Army the eighth wonder of the world.

“Service Above Self”

Our President, Barbara Laurenzi, has chosen Rhotoplast as our international project this year. To benefit Rhotoplast, we will host a reception and show at Hedrow Theatre. The goal of Rotoplast International is to eliminate the incidence of untreated cleft lips and palates in children worldwide by the year 2025. Over 10,000 children have been helped since 1996. We hope you can come support this great cause. Bring family and friends. This is a good way to introduce new members to the work of Rotary.

Dear the Rotary Club of Media Members,

At the November 20th club meeting, I gave a presentation about the importance of The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International in our community and our world. Each of you by now should have received a letter from PDG Russ DeFuria and District Annual Giving Chair Bob Edge asking for your support and with instructions about how to make your gift to The Rotary Foundation. If you did not receive that mailing or have any question at all about how to make your contribution, please don't hesitate to contact me.

If you were not at the November 20th meeting, the club Board of Director's and several club Rotarians have made available 20,000 recognition points as a challenge match to your gift to the Rotary Foundation. Each recognition point is equal to a dollar in allowing you to reach your first or your multiple Paul Harris Fellow designation. If you wish to take advantage of that challenge match, please make out your check to The Rotary Foundation and get it to me at the address below. I will fill in the appropriate paperwork for you to transfer the correct number of recognition points to you.

If you have any questions about where you currently stand relative to your giving history with the Foundation let me know.

Thanks in advance for your support of The Rotary Foundation. Millions and millions of children and families in our community and around the globe are counting on you.

Sincerely, Jeff Cadorette, PDG
