A Trial of Wills - Hua Shan Mountain

Hua Shan Mountain, China

9:00 PM: I can't believe it's only been an hour. Time seems to suspend itself on this hike. The steps are infinitely steeper now, as short as the width of my feet. Scaling the stairwells, I use my arms to hoist me upwards by the chain-link handrails. Nearly every ten steps forces a rest. I think of my family.

I rest at a home. The storeowner invites me to sit, points to where I am on the map. A hodgepodge of hikers, young and old converse loudly. I can comprehend only their laughter and their huffs and puffs. I smile, not, laugh, and use my preschool Chinese phrases to show I am trying.

Go again!

10:30 PM: I don't need a break right now, but I can't help but stop. I am reclining upon a rock as I stare into the night. Bird chirps and from peeps echo off the mountains; voices of fellow night-trekkers intermittently float through the air. A distant full moon peeks through tiny silver streaks of clouds. I breath in a fresh, clean breeze. Tranquility in its purest form.

I gaze at the mountain in front of me. It looks like Paul Bunyun, supersized, fast asleep, Black, curly hair, a fluffy logger's beard,

wrinkles sculpt his forehead, and an arm slouches, creasing his shirt. Fast asleep, silent, at peace.

I can't help but wonder, What if this were it? What if these were my last moments on earth? Well, before I passed, there would be one last-minute request:

Think about me and smile. Laugh at my memorial. Remember trampolines, yearbooks, the Outer Banks. But most importantly, don't let my messages die. Nourish them forever, carry on the legacy I adopted from others. Do all you can to continue their spread. Enjoy life. Serve others. Be happy. And love, love, love. Find it in everything, harness it, keep it, never let it escape. A life without perpetual love is a life not worth living.

PLEASE HELP!

The Umberger family of Media had a fire in their home over this past weekend and all of the kids Christmas toys were ruined in 4-inches of water. Their home is also unlivable.

Today, we will be collecting toys and holiday items for the Umberger family. Below are the ages of the children. Let's do what we can to help these children have a happy holiday!!! Toys or gift cards are what we are looking for. Thank you.

ROTARY EXCHANGE STUDENT

Please welcome our club's Rotary exchange student for the 2008 - 2009 school year, Monica Bautista Sanchez, of Granada, Spain. Monica is 18 years old and enjoys basketball, skiing and reading. Her host family Dr. Betsy Race and Stuart Race and their 3 children live in Upper Providence. If your family would like to include Monica in a family activity or attending an event please call Rosemarie Halt at 610-892-0665 or the Race family directly at 610-565-7990.

MINI MEDIUM - HOLIDAY ECHOES

By TOM GIBSON

If you're reading this, you probably didn't attend our Club's December 10 special evening at the Hedge-row Theatre. I can make that statement since by my count, less than 20 of our members showed up. Too bad...most of you missed a fine affair that benefited Rotary's Rotaplast program. Attendees enjoyed a delicious reception that included a variety of tasty hors d'oeuvres, wine, and intermission dessert and coffee. Then came a fine production of A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens adapted by Nagle Jackson.

Fortunately, the Rotary members present also brought along many friends and family members, so we will be able to help a future Rotaplast mission to China next year. For your information, Jeff Cadorette got into the act, literally. He had a none-speaking role as one of the local citizens, drifting on and off the stage in both acts, sort of like one of the three ghosts of Christmas past, present, and future. However, Jeff did offer a few words about Rotary's many international programs during intermission. Hedgerow's "head," fellow member Penny Reed, also made some remarks along with being a delightful hostess. You should have been there.

Our December 11 luncheon meeting also had a holiday connection as our own George Albany gave us some background about Belschnikel, a nasty Christmas-season character from Germany. It seems Belschnikel frightened all the German children into being good and giving. George reported that Mr. Nasty would scratch his fingernails on window panes and knock on doors in the dead of night. At that, there was loud knocking on our dining room door, and Belschnikel burst into the room (a Hedgerow actor in costume and dirty face, courtesy of Penny Reed). Sneering and hat-in-hand for a collection plate, Mr. Nasty went around the room "extracting" money for some charity. The character was probably from Congress after bailout funds. Humbug! Oh, well, as Tiny Tim would say: "God bless us, everyone."

GREAT ROTARIAN?!

Dear the Rotary Club of Media Members,

At the November 20th club meeting, I gave a presentation about the importance of The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International in our community and our world. Each of you by now should have received a letter from PDG Russ DeFuria and District Annual Giving Chair Bob Edge asking for your support and with instructions about how to make your gift to The Rotary Foundation. If you did not receive that mailing or have any question at all about how to make your contribution, please don't hesitate to contact me.

If you were not at the November 20th meeting, the club Board of Director's and several club Rotarians have made available 20,000 recognition points as a challenge match to your gift to the Rotary Foundation. Each recognition point is equal to a dollar in allowing you to reach your first or your multiple Paul Harris Fellow designation. If you wish to take advantage of that challenge match, please make out your check to The Rotary Foundation and get it to me at the address below. I will fill in the appropriate paperwork for you to transfer the correct number of recognition points to you.

If you have any questions about where you currently stand relative to your giving history with the Foundation let me know.

Thanks in advance for your support of The Rotary Foundation. Millions and millions of children and families in our community and around the globe are counting on you.

Sincerely, Jeff Cadorette, PDG

50/50 gifts for the next 70 weeks were supplied by the following businesses and Rotarians: Conductive Plastics Company, Contemporary Styles, D'Ignazio's Towne House, Franklin Mint Federal Credit Union, Kaos Surfboards, Pinocchio's, PNC Bank, Professional Duplicating, The Little Inn, Vinnie's Place, Wawa

Please thank them for making our weekly 50/50 more exciting!
