

TODAY'S SPEAKER: US CONGRESSMAN, JOE SESTAK

Joe Sestak is serving his second term as the Representative from Pennsylvania's 7th Congressional District, which includes most of Delaware County and parts of Chester and Montgomery Counties.

Born and raised in Delaware County, Joe Sestak spent 31 years serving our nation in the U.S. Navy, rising to the rank of three-star Admiral.

Joe Sestak brings to Congress the same dedication and commitment with which he served this country in the Navy. As a member of Congress, Joe is working to strengthen our country's national security - national security that begins at home in the health, education, and economic promise of our people, as well as our defense security. Joe's primary focus is on fixing problems and moving our country forward - not on governing from the left or on the right.

During his distinguished career in the Navy, Joe led a series of operational commands, culminating in the command of the George Washington aircraft carrier battle group, which consisted of 30 U.S. and allied ships, 15,000 sailors, and close to 100 aircraft. Under Joe's watch, the George Washington battle group conducted combat operations in Afghanistan and precursor operations to the war in Iraq.

Joe also served in President Clinton's White House as the Director for Defense Policy on the National Security Council. After 9/11, he was selected to serve as the first Director of "Deep Blue," the Navy's anti-terrorism unit where he worked to establish new strategies for the Navy to fight the Global War on Terror.

After graduating from Cardinal O'Hara High School, Joe followed in the footsteps of his father, a Navy captain who served in World War II, and attended the U.S. Naval Academy, where he graduated second in his class. Joe also holds a MPA, and a PhD in Political Economy and Government, from Harvard University.

Joe has one brother and six sisters. He and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Alexandra.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WORLD

Poetry at its Best
Chengdu, China

In analyzing cultural differences, what is most remarkable is that this man's fame roots in his poetry. For thousands of years, poetry was the most highly regarded literary genre in China. During poetry's peak, in the Tang dynasty, Du Fu transformed the art of poetry in a Shakespearian-revolutionary style. He was able to shape the Chinese language in ways that hadn't been done before.

His works reflected realism much more so than any past poets. But perhaps most importantly, his poetry wrote about more than just reflected a deep love for his country. He was critical of China's broken governments, troubled with the suffering of the Chinese people, and concerned for the fate of his motherland. In fact, Du Fu's works are often viewed as "poetic history" because he documents the political systems and the common people. And often, this suffering directly impacted him. For example, after one journey, he returned home to find his son dead from starvation, prompting these famous lines: "Wine and meat go bad in lordly mansions. Bones of those dying in chilly wind are scattered on the road."

DONATIONS

TO THE VFW NEW ADVENTURE FOR 2009

Our active military has requested the following items:
Coloring Books, Baby Wipes, Crayons, Cotton Balls, Small Safe Toys, Q-Tips, Silly String, Toiletry packets, Tooth Paste, Tooth Brush, Powdered Drinks, Sunglass Inserts, Training Pants, Toilet Tissue (1-ply), Donations, CHOCOLATE

For the past two years or so, we have been collecting old and unwanted cell phones. We then donated those old phones and made some money for the club. At yesterday's Board Meeting, we discussed a new avenue: CD's! While we will still take your old phones for the next two weeks, we will be turning out attention to old CD's. Do you have a Billy Joel album you don't listen to anymore? How about that soundtrack to that movie you hate? Don't throw those away. Donate them at a Thursday meeting. We will be collecting these disc's and selling them to Jack Sproul's son. This ingenious business man lists all the used CD's online and runs his business over the internet. Brilliant! So, let's bring in a few old CD's and make a few dollars for the club.
