

FOUNDATION AWARDS 30,000TH MATCHING GRANT

By Peter Schmittke RI News

3 March, 2009

Children, recipients of a Rotary Foundation Matching Grant to correct heart irregularities, are all smiles at the Padre Francisco Da Motta school in Brazil. In December, the Foundation approved the 30,000th Matching Grant.

More than 20 children in India will congenital heart defects will soon benefit from the 30,000th

Matching Grant awarded by The Rotary Foundation.

The Foundation approved a grant of US$15,000 in December for the project, a collaboration between the Rotary clubs of Cochin Midtown, Kerala, India, and Sandbach, Cheshire, England. The grant will help fund surgeries to correct heart irregularities in children between the ages of three months and 18 years in southern and northern India.

The clubs have each contributed $5,000 towards the project. Their districts, 3201 (India) and 1050 (England), have both provided $5,000 from their District Designated Fund, for a total of $35,000.

The project is being coordinated through Gift of Life International, and organization supported by Rotary clubs world wide. It's the latest development in the ongoing efforts of the Cochin Midtown club and District 3201 to provide open heart surgeries to 105 children from indigent families by 2010, Rotary's 105th year.

During the past two years, clubs in District 3201 have organized four other Matching Grant projects for surgeries, and have independently funded several other surgeries as well.

"A child with heart disease who is born to poor parents puts an entire family of five or six persons in financial disarray," says Cochin Midtown club president V.J. John, explaining his district's decision to make the surgeries a priority.

Through the Matching Grants program, the Foundation provides a dollar-for-dollar match for every District Designated Fund contribution to a project, and a 50-cent match for every dollar of additional contributions.

Since 1965, the Foundation has matched contribution for international service projects in 199 countries at a cost of more than $335 million. In 2007-08 alone, the Foundation approved $43.8 million for 2,424 Matching Grant projects in 137 countries.

REVISION OF CLUB BYLAWS

During the past year, several members of our Club have been working on revising our Club Bylaws to include some local Club changes and also to reflect new directions recommended by Rotary International. At their last meeting, members of Club's Board of Directors approved all of the changes. A copy of the Revised Bylaws is included with this issue of The Medium and copies will also be available at future Club meetings.

Please read these revisions and be prepared to vote on their approval at our June 11 meeting. If you wish to challenge or change any items,

NOW is the time to be heard (contact Tom Gibson or President Barbara). Two-thirds of the members present on June 11 must approve of these amendments for them to be accepted.

Western (Cuisine?) in China
Ankang, China

I'm sorry, Italy. I have sinned.

In my last week at the Aston English School, since my coworkers had been so accommodating during my stay, I decided to return the favor by "treating" them to a homemade Western meal. Little did I know this would be the most challenging — and least appetizing — meal I would ever make.

This is my story.

(and yes, it is all genuinely true)

Step 1: Create a menu

Materials: computer, internet

Instructions: Go to allrecipes.com. Browse cuisines; choose your favorites. This part is a piece of cake (pun intended); pasta with homemade sauce, fresh-cooked garlic bread, salad with vinaigrette, and chocolate chip cookies. Assess the situation; you're cooking your favorite foods and giving your coworkers their first "Western" meal. Get excited!

Step 2: Create ingredients list

Materials: pencil, paper

Instructions: Self-explanatory.

Step 3: Translate ingredients list

Materials: Google electronic translator, and Aston School human translator to record Chinese symbols

Instructions: Transcribe each ingredient from readable English into illegible symbols. Don't worry if your fellow human translator has never heard of most of your ingredients; perhaps she just hasn't cooked much before.

Spaghetti ?!?!

Step 4: Ask your boss for help

Materials: school English book

Instructions: Ask your boss if you can cook at his house, since your apartment only has a microwave and chopsticks.

Ask if he has a stove. When he looks at you funny, open the English book and point to a picture of a stove. Be relieved when he says yes..

Step 5: Go shopping

Materials: Shopping cart, lots of store attendants to help

Instructions: Starting checking off your list. When you can't find any products, ask the attendants standing in nearly every aisle. Don't give up when their confused faces indicate they haven't heard of most materials on your list. After you've checked off only four items, don't be disappointed. Persevere. There's always the next store. Right?
