STUDENTS OF THE MONTH HONORED

The Rotary Club of Media recently honored three local students for their outstanding leadership and excellence in their school academics and activities.

Penncrest High School senior Emily Ditzel is active in the music program as a violinist and Ambassador Choir member as well as a songwriter and composer. She auditioned for American Idol and was honored with a call back. She volunteers at City Team and with her church. Robert Merillat, a junior at Penncrest is in the National Honor Society and Math Honor Society. He is also active in the school's music program, playing saxophone and won the Frederick Douglass and Susan B. Anthony Book Award.
